Introduction.

WE take the liberty of introducing to the kind regards of the great Fraternity of FREEMASONS in North America this little book, as the product of an earnest effort to place before them a compendious Register of their lodges and grand lodges on this continent, to the extent of all which correspond or recognize each other. As will be seen, those lodges number (8,069) eight thousand and sixty-nine, the grand lodges (47) forty-seven, while they mutually represent more than (514,296) five hundred and fourteen thousand, two hundred and ninety-six MEN, all bound, to a certain extent, by similar rites and obligations to assist each other in sickness and in health, and extend each to the other of this vast multitude a brother's hand and a brother's affectionate consideration.

Believing that such a little book would be gratifying as instructive to every Brother Freemason who took that interest in our great Fraternity that is expected of us all, we have, at greater expense and more labor than we anticipated, and with the kind assistance of brethren, the secretaries and grand secretaries, been enabled to present that which we have conscientiously endeavored to make—a correct Register of the information this book presents, and compressed the same into as little space as a due regard for the easy examination and use of it would warrant.

A book of this character, and confined to its subjects, presents a very limited field for literary labor or merit ; nevertheless we hope that its contents even in this respect will be satisfactory to those they principally interest. In our notices of grand lodges we have in great measure confined our statements to necessary information, and have presented what we believe to be a correct record as well of their organization as of their standing at this date. Wherever we have exceeded this, we have endeavored to do so not in a spirit of unkind criticism, but fraternally solicitous for the better condition and more truly respectable of those important bodies.

With this, our brief introduction of our GENERAL MASONIC REGISTER to those for whom it has been produced, we bespeak their kind indulgence towards any faults or errors of omission or commission they may discover. With the most careful and pains-taking fidelity in its production, such a book, we respectfully request them to remember, although believed to be nearly perfect, must necessarily be imperfect; and notwithstanding the greatest degree of correctness may be desired and earnestly striven for, where thousands of proper names are presented, incorrectness will inevitably occur.

GENERAL MASONIC REGISTER.

Alabama.

THE Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 14th June, 1821. Its communications are held in December of each year, at the city of Montgomery. Than this no grand lodge in North America has exercised a manner more paternal and solicitous for their welfare toward the lodges of its jurisdiction. In evidence we can, from personal knowledge, state that in 1858, consequent upon a vote taken in Dec. 1857, there was purchased for and delivered to each lodge in good standing in the State a set of the "Universal Masonic Library," thirty volumes octavo, at a cost to the Grand Lodge of Alabama of about Forty-five Dollars a set; and on more than one occasion, as we have been informed, when it was ascertained that the treasury exceeded the requirements of the grand lodge, instead of hoarding and putting to interest the excess, as is the manner generally of those organizations, this excess was divided pro rata among and returned to the lodges. Engaging in no building operations for any purpose, and keeping expenses at figures designated by the constitution, the revenue, derived from charter fees and fifty cents per capita annual dues from the members of the lodges, has always been ample to meet the obligations of this grand lodge. In common with the majority of grand lodges in the Southern States, neither mileage nor per diem is paid by the G. L. of Alabama; and a proposed change in the constitution, recognizing such payment, was in 1870 voted in the negative by a majority of the lodges. A proposition to assess for the purpose of building a "G. L. Hall" in the city of Montgomery, and under which, though not submitted to the lodges for their rejection or approval, its terms had been by some of them complied with, was, in 1870, repealed by the grand lodge, and a vote passed to return the money received to the lodges which paid it.

During the fifty years this grand lodge has existed there have been 374 lodges set to work by its charters and dispensations, of which 244 were in 1870 returned in good standing, with a membership of 10,985. The Constitution, Sec. 22. of Art. 6, directs that "Every lodge that shall neglect to make regular return to the G. L., or to pay its dues, or fail to be represented in G. L. for two successive years, or which shall fail to assemble for work for the space of six months, shall be stricken from the books of the G. L., be deprived of the benefits of Masonry, and its charter declared forfeited." Under this provision there were, in 1870, 69 lodges the charters of which were declared forfeited, with 38 reported delinquent for one year, and 19 army numbers extinct, leaving 244 in good standing, and of which 233 were duly represented.

The executive grand officers elected in December, 1870, are—

WM. P. CHILTON, of Montgomery, Grand Master.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON, of Talladega, Dep. Gr. Master.

WM. H. DINGLEY, of Montgomery, Gr. Treasurer.

DANIEL SAYRE, of Montgomery, Gr. Secretary.

Arkansas.

THE Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 22d of February, 1832. Its communications are held at Little Rock, the capital of the State, in November of each year. It is one of the few grand lodges which recognize Past Masters as regular members, and the only grand lodge extant that devotes the surplus of its revenue to the sustenance of an institution of learning. Each year a Board of Trustees is elected in Grand Lodge to attend to the interests of SAINT JOHN'S COLLEGE, located at Little Rock, and which Board annually, through its secretary, reports the condition of that institution to Grand Lodge. So soon as its liabilities for the current year are ascertained by proper committee, the grand lodge at once votes the residue to be, on the grand treasurer's books, placed to the credit of St. John's College; and this balance, with donations from friends of the college, have thus far proved sufficient to sustain the same in a satisfactory manner. During the year 1870 the college buildings were greatly improved, and are now capable of accomodating over sixty students with sleeping rooms. A suitable boarding-house has also been provided on the grounds, where the students all can be provided with good food at a moderate charge. A president and the necessary professors render this institution a very valuable acquisition to the educational privileges of the whole State. The college is endowed with a lot of valuable land, $35,000 worth of which was, in 1870, sold to persons who agreed to settle upon and improve their purchases, and who, under such contract, and the agreement to pay interest semi-annually for the respective amounts, were allowed ten years within which to pay for their respective purchases.

Neither mileage nor per diem are paid by the G. L. of Arkansas to the representatives or members. In November, 1870, there were enrolled 262 lodges, with a membership of 9,324 master masons. Of those lodges 231 had made returns for the year, and 134 were represented at the communication for that year. The executive grand officers then elected are as follow :

SAM. K. WILLIAMS, of Little Rock, Grand Master.
 (This G. L. does not elect a Deputy Grand Master.)
 R. L. DODGE, of Little Rock, Grand Treasurer.
 LUKE E. BARBER, of Little Rock, Grand Secretary.

The following information is collected from the Proceedings for 1870 of the Grand Lodge, and such later data as we received from the lodge secretaries, in response to our circulars requesting the same :

THE Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 18th of April, 1850, by four lodges, working under charters from as many States. Its communications are held in the City of San Francisco, in the new Masonic Temple, in October of each year. Its membership is composed in part of Past Masters. The most notable feature about this grand lodge is the running expenses of its grand secretary's office, amounting in 1870 to, including printing, $8,600. For this money, however, the best work is done in the best manner. The revenue of this grand lodge is large, being for an equal number of lodges nearly double the amount levied by the grand lodges of the Atlantic States. With 178 lodges, and a membership of less than 10,000 Master Masons, the revenue for 1870 amounted to $17,500. The representatives are "reimbursed their necessary traveling expenses" from the Representative Fund, (at present 25 cents per member of each lodge in the State paid annually for this fund,) and which payments, in aggregate, amounted in 1870 to the sum of $4,710.25—about equally proportionate with mileage and per diem paid by other grand lodges of like constituency.

The executive officers elect and appointed in October, 1870, are as follow, viz :

LEONIDAS E. PRATT, of San Francisco, Grand Master.

ISAAC S. TITUS, of Stockton, Deputy Gr. Master.

JAMES LAIDLEY, of San Francisco, Gr. Treasurer.

ALEX. GURDON ABEILL, of San Francisco, Gr. Secretary.

LAWRENCE C. OWEN, of San Francisco, Assistant G. Sec'y.

THE Grand Lodge of this Territory was organized on the 2nd of August, 1861, by the representatives of the three lodges then in the territory, and J. M. Chivington, of Gold Hill, was elected the first grand master. In 1870 15 lodges were in the Territory, with a membership in all of 854 Master Masons. The rejections usually equal the receptions in this jurisdiction, as the population is of a floating character, and mainly unsettled. There has been erected a convenient Masonic Hall at Central City, where the grand lodge meets on the last Tuesday of each Sept'r. Past Masters are not recognized as members of this grand lodge, but past grand and past deputy grand masters are. Mileage and per diem are paid to one representative from each lodge, at rate of 12.5 cents per mile, going and returning, and two dollars per diem for each day in actual attendance.

Among the Resolutions of this grand lodge having the force of law, and styled "Standing Resolutions," is one declaring that the lodge that fails to meet once in six months forfeits its charter. Another is that non-affiliated Masons shall pay grand lodge dues, or be permitted to visit a lodge not more than twice. Another is that no lodge shall grant a demit to any of its members except for one of two purposes : to move out of the jurisdiction or to affiliate in another lodge.

In 1869 this grand lodge reprinted its, proceedings from date of its organization at a cost of $1360. The same is bound in a handsome volume, and for a copy of which the grand secretary is here tendered our fraternal thanks.

The executive officers elected in September, 1870, were—

HENRY M. TELLER, of Central, Grand Master.

C. J. HART, of Pueblo, Deputy Gr. Master.

WM. W. WARE, of Georgetown, Gr. Treasurer.

ED. C. PARMELEE, of Georgetown, Gr. Secretary.

THE Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 8th of July 1789, by a convention of delegates from all the lodges in the State, and this was the first independent grand lodge organized in this manner in North America. Delegates from fifteen lodges organized this grand lodge, and elected Pierpont Edwards the first grand master. The business of this grand lodge is conducted in maximum manner at a minimum rate of expense—the grand secretary being paid the stipend of $250 a year for his services. A very low rate of dues is exacted from the lodges, the same being simply a tax of $1.50 per capita for each initiate by the lodges during the year. In 1870 this amounted to $1308. When this tax fails to meet the regular expenses a small assessment is made under a provision of the constitution. The regular communications of this grand lodge are held alternately at Hartford and New Haven on the second Wednesday in May of each year. Past Masters are not recognized as members. No mileage or per diem, nor any other compensation to lodge representatives; while each lodge, under a penalty of $8 for each neglect of such requirement, must be represented, unless at the next grand annual meeting a satisfactory reason for such neglect is tendered. In 1870 there were 99 lodges working under charters, and 4 under dispensation, with a total membership of 14,072, or an average of 136 to each lodge—the highest in North America.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

ASA SMITH, of Norwalk, Grand Master.

JAMES L. GOULD, of Bridgeport, Deputy Gr. Master

GEORGE LEE, of Hartford, Grand Treasurer.

JOSEPH H. WHEELER, of Hartford, Grand Secretary.

Delaware.

THE Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 6th of June 1806. Its annual communications are held in Wilmington, on the fourth Monday in June. In 1870 there were 18 lodges in the State holding charters from this grand lodge, with a total membership of 967 Master Masons. The most notable act of this grand lodge was the adoption in June, 1867, of a resolution by which it was made an obligation of the Master's degree for every mason in the State to discountenance the making a mason of "any negro, mulatto, or colored person of the United States." In 1869 this resolution was repealed, and one substituted enjoining, under the penalty of expulsion, non-intercourse with any society claiming to be Masonic, unless the same be acknowledged by the Gr. Lodge of Delaware.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

J. C. McCABE, of Middletown, Grand Master.

W. F. GODWIN, of Milford, Deputy Gr. Master.

J. C. PICKELS, of Wilmington, Grand Treasurer.

JOHN C. ALLMOND, of Wilmington, Grand Secretary.

District of Columbia.

THIS Grand Lodge was organized on the 11th of December, 1810, by lodges in the District working under charters from grand lodges in adjoining States. It holds three regular communications each year: the annual, at which officers are elected, on the first Tuesday in November; the semi-annual on the first Tuesday in May, and the installation of officers on the 27th of December.

Past Masters are recognized as members of this grand lodge. In 1870 there were 19 lodges, with a total membership of 2420 Master Masons. A handsome Masonic Hall has recently been built in Washington City, in which all the lodges, except that at Georgetown, and the grand lodge meet. During 1870 the subject "the Right of Visit" was discussed through a most exhaustive correspondence conducted by the executive of this grand lodge with the other grand lodges of the United States, and the decision arrived at was that it is the right of the W. M. to determine on the reception or rejection of a visitor, he alone being responsible to the grand lodge. The executive officers elected in November, 1870, were—

CHAS. F. STANSBURY, Grand Master.

GEO. B. CLARK, Dep. Grand Master.

C. CAMMACK, sr., Grand Treasurer.

NOBLE D. LARNER, Grand Secretary.

The following information is collected from the Proceedings for 1870 of the Grand Lodge, and such later data as we received from the lodge secretaries, in response to our circulars requesting the same:

Florida.

THE Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 6th of July, 1830, by the delegates from three lodges then in the State, assembled for the purpose at Tallahassee, and John P. Duval, being the senior Past Master present, was elected the first Grand Master. In 1858 this grand lodge voted to purchase, and had delivered to each lodge then existing in the State, a set of the "Universal Masonic Library," at a cost of about $45 each set. In 1859, this grand lodge, under the superintendence of the late Past Grand Master Thomas Brown, reprinted and published its proceedings from its organization to that date, in one large and handsome volume, at a cost of about $1500. In 1870 there were holding under this grand lodge 54 lodges with a total membership of about 2,250. Past Masters are members of this grand lodge; and its annual communications take place at Tallahassee on the second Monday of January. The executive officers elect in 1870 were—

AN independent Grand Lodge was organized in this State on 16th of December, 1786, the officers being installed on the 27th of the same month, with William Stephens as the first grand master, and Samuel Stirk, grand secretary. No record of the number of lodges participating in this organization seems to have been preserved. The annual communications are held in the City of Macon on the last Wednesday in October. Under the supervision of Dr. Blackshear, the present efficient and painstaking grand secretary, the proceedings of this grand lodge are produced in the best manner. In 1870 there were 272 lodges, with a total membership of about 14,100 Master Masons; and the revenue of the grand lodge for that year $18,324.96. Mileage and per diem to amount of $7,100 was paid in 1869 to the lodge representatives. Past Masters are recognized as members of this grand lodge. There are four deputy grand masters elected yearly, and the supervision of the lodges apportioned among them.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

SAMUEL LAWRENCE, of Marietta, Grand Master.

DAVIS N. AUSTIN, of Fort Valley, Dep. Gr. Master of District No. 1.

JAMES M. MOBLEY, of Hamilton, Dep. Gr. Master of District No. 2.

JOSIAH J. WRIGHT, of Rome, Deputy Gr. Master of District No. 3.

DAVID E. BUTLER, of Augusta, Dep. Gr. Master of District No. 4.

JOSEPH E. WELLS, of Macon, Grand Treasurer.

J. EMMETT BLACKSHEAR, of Macon, Grand Secretary.

Idaho.

The Grand Lodge in this Territory was organized 10th December 1867, by three lodges holding under G. L. of Oregon, and one under the G. L. of Washington Territory, and George H Carr was elected the first grand master. In 1870 there were 8 lodges in the jurisdiction, with a total membership of 288 Master Masons. This grand lodge is migratory, holding its annual communications on the first Monday in October, at such place as may be fixed upon at the previous annual session.

The executive grand officers elect in 1870 were—

S. B. CONNELLY, of Pioneerville, Grand Master.

CHAS. HILTON, of Silver City, Deputy Gr. Master.

J. W. GRIFFIN, of Boise City, Grand Treasurer.

H. E. PRICKETT, of Boise City, Grand Secretary.

In reply to our circulars requesting the same, three of the lodges here given furnished the information desired. Otherwise the list is copied from the 1870 Proceedings.

Illinois.

IN 1822 there was a grand lodge organized in this territory, but it succumbed to the anti-masonic excitement which swept the entire country within the subsequent decade. The present Grand Lodge of Illinois was organized at Jackson, on the 6th of April, 1840, by delegates from six lodges, four of those lodges holding under the G. Lodge of Kentucky ; Abraham Jonas was elected first grand master, and Wm. B. Warren the first grand secretary. The annual communications are not fixed, as to place, but had been, until 1870, for many years held in Springfield, in October. Under a change of By-Laws, it is now proposed to permanently locate the grand lodge in Chicago, the principal commercial city of the State. The increase of lodges in Illinois within thirty years has but one parallel in any American State. In 1871 there were 629 lodges, with a total membership of 36,250 Master Masons ; being an increase in the previous ten years of 100 per cent. for the lodges, and 200 per cent. for the membership. A proposition made in grand lodge in October, 1870, to remove the archives to Chicago, was unfortunately not adopted, for they were all destroyed by fire in February 1871, at Springfield, with the office of the Gr. Sec'y. The Proceedings of the 1870 session having, fortunately, been printed at Quincy, were, to extent of about 1500 copies, saved ; those delivered at Springfield having been destroyed. The supervision of this large jurisdiction is at present intrusted to thirty District Deputy Grand Masters, the appointees of the grand master elect. In 1870 the revenue of this grand lodge amounted to $24,570.50, of which the sum of $23,383.17 was disbursed in paying mileage and per diem, appropriations, salaries, printing, postage, &c. for the year—among which $100 only were donated as charity.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

DEWITT C. CREGIER, of Chicago, Grand Master.

JAMES A. HAWLEY, of Dixon, Deputy Grand Master.

HARRISON DILLS, of Quincy, Grand Treasurer.

ORLIN H. MINER, of Springfield, Grand Secretary.

Appointed by Gr. Master—

JOHN C. REYNOLDS, of Springfield, Deputy Gr. Sec'y.

Indiana.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Corydon, then the capital of the territory, on the 12th of January. 1818, by the representatives of five lodges. Its annual communications are held at Indianapolis, the present capital of the State, convening on the fourth Tuesday of May. In May, 1871, there were 437 lodges, with a total membership of 23,308 Master Masons. The increase of the Fraternity in this State corresponds with the increase of population. This grand lodge is possessed of a Hall at Indianapolis, the value of which has been enhanced by repairs and improvements put upon it within the past three years. The revenue of this grand lodge, computed for the year ending May 22. 1871, was $19,259.22, of which $15,268.12 were expended paying mileage and per diem, appropriations, salaries, repairs on Hall, printing, postage, etc., leaving $9,235.06, the accumulation of two years. as the balance in the G. T.'s hands. The most notable reform adopted by this grand lodge occurred in 1858. when it was resolved that a lodge might depose and discipline its W. M., also appeal from his decision to the members in open lodge. The practice has not become general. Past Masters are not recognized as members of this grand lodge.

The executive grand officers elected in 1871 were—

MARTIN H. RICE, of Indianapolis, Grand Master.

CHRISTIAN FETTA, of Richmond, Deputy Grand Master

CHARLES FISHER, of Indianapolis, Grand Treasurer.

JOHN M. BRAMWELL, of Indianapolis, Grand Secretary.

For the following information we are indebted to the courtesy of the Gr. Sec'y. who from the lodge Returns for 1871 kindly supplied the names of such secretaries as had refused or failed to reply to our circulars, mailed to each, requesting the favor of such reply. Otherwise, the Proceedings of G. L. for 1871 has been referred to.

Iowa.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on 3d of January, 1844, by the representatives of three lodges in convention at Iowa City, Oliver Cock being elected the first grand master. The annual communications are convened on the first Monday of June. The place of meeting has been changeable, and but recently fixed for the next four years at Davenport, where Dr. Burtis of that city has tendered gratis the use of suitable apartments in his Opera House to the Grand Lodge of Iowa. In 1860 there were 150 lodges in the State. In 1871 there were 280 lodges chartered, and 4 under dispensation, with a total membership of 12,548. In ten years, as in Illinois, the lodges in Iowa have doubled, and the membership trebled, and in this condition have but kept pace proportionately with the increase of population in that period in those States. Hereafter this grand lodge will pay mileage and per diem to its members. The proposition to do so was adopted in June, 1871, and the first payments then made. The business of this body is performed in the best manner, at a moderate expense. The Proceedings are admirably printed, and the work of the Gr. Sec'y unexcelled. This grand lodge has reprinted and published its Proceedings since its organization, and the same, bound in three handsome volumes, are purchaseable at a moderate price. The library of this grand lodge, at present located in one of the Burtis Opera House rooms at Davenport, is a desirable collection of Masonic books and periodicals.

The executive grand officers elected in 1871 were—

O. P. WATERS, of Muscatine, Grand Master.

T. J. COPP, of Burlington, Grand Treasurer.

THEO. S. PARVIN, of Iowa City, Grand Secretary.

This grand lodge does not elect but the Gr. Master appoints the Deputy Grand Master. For the information following we are principally indebted to the Proceedings of G. L. for 1870, and the Gr. Sec'y, and also to the Bro. Secretaries who have responded to our circulars soliciting later information.

Kansas.

THE Grand Lodge in this State was organized on the 27th November, 1855, by delegates from two lodges. The proceedings having been pronounced illegal, another convention of delegates from all the lodges in the territory met, on the 17th March, 1856, ratified the proceedings of the previous convention, and thereupon opened a grand lodge for the territory, with Richard R. Rees the first grand master. The increase of lodges and brethren in Kansas since that date has kept pace with the population. In 1870 there were 96 lodges, and 3,761 members. This grand lodge has no abiding place at which to hold its annual communications, neither does it pay mileage or per diem to its members, among which Past Masters are recognized. The treasury is small, and grand lodge dues kept at a figure sufficient to meet current expenses only, or about $2000 per annum.

The executive grand officers elect in 1870 were—

JOHN H. BROWN, of Leavenworth, Grand Master.

JOHN M. PRICE, of Atchison, Deputy Gr. Master.

CHRISTIAN BECK, of Leavenworth, Grand Treasurer.

E. F. CARR, of Leavenworth, Grand Secretary.

Following the example set by the G. L. of Iowa, some years ago, but abrogated in 1871, this grand lodge elects three "Custodians of the Work," who serve a term of years, and whose traveling expenses, unless paid by the lodges which they visit, are paid by the Grand Lodge. In both States the object of this arrangement was to teach in the lodges a system of work and lectures adopted by the respective grand lodges as the most correct and satisfactory—a result that in Iowa is believed to have been accomplished.

The following information is collected from the Proceedings for 1870 of the Grand Lodge, and such later data as we received from the lodge secretaries, in response to our circulars requesting the same :

Kentucky.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on 16th October, 1800, by a convention of delegates from the lodges then in the State holding under the Grand Lodge of Virginia, after receiving the consent of that body. in reply to a memorial addressed to it a month previously, and William Murray was elected the first grand master. Until 1858 the annual communications of this grand lodge were held in the Masonic Hall at Lexington, and since that year in the Masonic Temple at Louisville, in October. Neither mileage nor per diem were paid its members, until 1869, in which year the grand lodge dues having been increased 25 per cent. per capita of the total membership, the payment was begun, and has since been continued. This grand lodge has at present a treasury of $100,000 invested in Stocks, Bonds, and Mortgages of various designations, of which $75,000 are invested in the Masonic Temple building in the City of Louisville. Among the sources of this grand lodge's revenue there is one which, in this day of general denunciation of the business it is derived from, may be regarded as of very questionable character. In 1802 the then State Legislature of Kentucky to this grand lodge granted a Lottery privilege, for the purpose of thereby raising money to build a Masonic Hall at Lexington, and which privilege, from lack of knowledge as to the profitable manner of working it, was for some years subsequently exploited by the grand lodge "Lottery Trustees" at a loss, until finally and for the past sixty years farmed out to regular Lottery practitioners. In view of the fact that this grant, albeit the object of it was duly accomplished more than fifty years ago, was never abrogated, while the annual revenue derived from it in this past half century has never subserved any educational, moral, or charitable purpose, it is believed that the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Freemasons is now quite rich enough to forego all further receipt of or benefit to be derived from it; nevertheless, so far, and up to the present time, no action tending to such result has been moved in this grand lodge, and the revenue from this source, at present $500, appears annually in the grand treasurer's account. Except in the case of the G. L. of Maryland, to which a few years previously by the Maryland Legislature a similar privilege was granted for a like purpose, no other State legislature has ever granted a grand lodge of Freemasons such a privilege. By the Maryland grand lodge, however, its Lottery privilege was annulled many years ago.

In 1870 there were holding under the G. L. of Ky. about 413 lodges, with the total membership 20,338, the dues of whom to the grand lodge are $1 each per annum. The executive grand officers elect in 1870 were—

CHARLES EGINTON, of Covington, Grand Master.

E. B. JONES, of Paducah, Deputy Grand Master.

ALBERT G. HODGES, of Frankfort, Grand Treasurer.

JOHN M. S. M'CORKLE, of Louisville, Grand Secretary.

For thirty years the Proceedings of this grand lodge have been printed by one person—at present and for that whole period the grand treasurer,—and the result is that at the present time they are printed in no better style than that of thirty years ago, while the price is equal to that charged for the finest work done in the most expensive printing houses in America. It is believed that a change in this particular will result in obtaining work corresponding with the improved typography and style of hodiernal book-making, and creditable to this large and wealthy grand lodge jurisdiction. From those Proceedings for 1870, and the later data supplied by such Bro. Secretaries as responded to our circulars, we collect the following information.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on 11th of July, 1812, by the representatives of five lodges then in the State holding under four different grand lodges, one of them being that of Mar-seilles in France, and P. Francis Du Bourg was elected the first grand master. In 1848-'49 there were two grand lodges, which, in 1850 united and formed that which now exists, and the annual com^lmunications of which are held in February. In 1871 there were in the jurisdiction of this grand lodge 148 lodges, with a total membership of 7,307 Master Masons. Lodges work in any Rite they may prefer, but no lodge works in two or more Rites. In 1869 this grand lodge issued its bonds for $75,000, bearing 8 per cent. interest; otherwise its liabilities did not in 1871 exceed $2,500, while its assets were in that year estimated at $269,215. 60, of which $125,000 is the estimated value of the Grand Lodge Hall, and the unsold "Masonic Temple Property," near that part of the city known as Tivoli Circle, is estimated at $70,000. These estimates for the property in question, in ordinary times, are believed to be not excessive. A proposition, however, to enhance the value of those assets, by the erection of a new Masonic Temple, is under earnest consideration. Neither mileage nor per diem are paid its members by this grand lodge. Its printed Proceedings compose a large and handsome annual, and offer the reader, to some extent in French as well as in the English language, all the information concerning this jurisdiction and Masonry in general that is necessary in such a volume.

The executive grand officers elect in 1871 were—

SAM. MANNING TODD, of New Orleans, Grand Master.

AMOS KENT, of Tangipaho, Deputy Grand Master.

H. RUFUS SWASEY, of New Orleans, Grand Treasurer.

JAMES C. BATCHELOR, of New Orleans, Grand Secretary.

The following information we collect from the Proceedings of G. L. for 1871, with such changes made therein as the later data supplied by the lodge secretaries enabled us to make.

Maine.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on the 1st of June 1820, by delegates from the several lodges then assembled at Portland for that purpose, and the Hon. Wm. King, governor of Maine, and which in that year was separated from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, was elected the first grand master. The annual communications of this grand lodge occur in May in the Hall owned by the several Masonic bodies at Portland. In 1870 there were 153 chartered lodges, and six holding under dispensation, with a total membership of 14,820. The jurisdiction is divided into nineteen districts, and each put in charge of a D. D. G. M. appointed by the G. M. elect. These officers are paid their traveling expenses; they report annually, and also collect from the several lodges in their respective districts the G. L. annual dues, and pay the same to the grand treasurer. This grand lodge has a "Charity Fund," of $15,000, not sunk in a grand temple, but carefully invested in U. S. Bonds and Bank Stocks, the interest of which is devoted to the relief of worthy applicants for Masonic charity, 87 of whom were, in 1870, reported as having been relieved to extent in all of $1,420. The revenue of this grand lodge is but slightly in excess of a very low rate of current expenses, or about $5,000 per annum. Neither mileage nor per diem is paid to its members.

The executive grand officers elect in 1870 were—

JOHN H. LYNDE, of Bangor, Grand Master.

DAVID CARGILL, of Augusta, Deputy Grand Master.

MOSES DODGE, of Portland, Grand Treasurer.

IRA BERRY, of Portland, Grand Secretary.

Maryland.

The Grand Lodge in this State was informally organized at Talbot C. H., on the 31st of July, 1783, by the representatives of five lodges all situate on the Eastern shore, and holding charters from the Provincial grand lodge of Pennsylvania ; the lodge at Annapolis, holding its charter since 1750 from the Massachusetts Provincial grand lodge, taking no part in the organization. Subsequently on the 17th of April, 1787, this 1783 grand lodge was reorganized, by representatives from all the lodges in the State, who assembled at Baltimore for that purpose. In the same year this grand lodge was, by the then Maryland Legislature, granted a Lottery privilege to enable it build a Masonic Hall in the City of Baltimore, and by which privilege such building was, in the course of several years, erected, and remained the property of the grand lodge until 1869, when the present Masonic Temple was completed, and which latter, as a Masonic building speculation is not considered an unquestionable success. This grand lodge has a "Charity Fund" of at present about $75,000, but, like that of the G. L. of Mass., it is all invested in the new Temple, upon which a large amount is about to be raised by an issue of G. L. Bonds, with which to clear that property entirely of outside debt. This grand lodge pays neither mileage nor per diem to its members. In 1870 there were 76 chartered lodges with a total membership of 5,161 Master Masons. This grand lodge holds its annual meeting in November in the Temple at Baltimore. There is what is called a Grand Steward's Lodge, which meets when occasion requires.

The executive grand officers elect in 1870 were—

JOHN H. B. LATROBE, of Baltimore, Grand Master.

FRANCIS BURNS, of Baltimore, Deputy Grand Master.

FRED. K. FICKEY, of Baltimore, Grand Treasurer.

J. H. MEDAIRY, of Baltimore, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on the 9th of June, 1792, by two bodies representing all the lodges at that time in the State, each of which had exercised grand lodge privileges during many years previously. and John Cutler was elected the first grand master. Its annual communications are held 14th of December, with quarterly communications in March, June and September, also a communication on the 27th Dec. for the installation of the officers elected at the annual on the 14th of that month. The lodges in this State are not numbered, but are listed in alphabetical order, numbering in 1870, in all, 182. of which there were 3 in South America, 1 in China, and 1 in Peru, and containing in all 20,253 Master Masons. This grand lodge pays neither mileage nor per diem to its members. Its treasury and Charity Fund—the latter $75,000—are invested in the Boston Masonic Temple, a building that represents over half a million of dollars, and in which nearly all the Masonic bodies in that city meet. Except sufficient to meet very moderate current expenses, the regular revenue of this grand lodge, with the gross amount of a tax of $1 for each affiliated Mason in the State, payable yearly for thirteen years, or commuted to a single payment of a less gross amount, constitute a “Sinking Fund for the purpose of paying the indebtedness of the G. L., removing the incumbrance of liabilities upon the Temple, and placing the Charity Fund upon an independent basis.” The liabilities on the Temple are, by this arrangement, in course of liquidation at the rate of $20,000 a year. The State is divided into 16 Masonic districts, and each put in charge of a District D. G. M., who visits each lodge in his district, receives the dues and taxes therein, and pays the same to the grand treasurer, making an annual report to the grand master. Each operative lodge is represented by its three first officers elect. each of whom has a voice, and either of whom the vote of his lodge. Since first election of the present grand master the business has been made manifest through its printed Proceedings in the fullest and most satisfactory manner, with nothing suppressed that should be made known—the publication for 1871 being a noble volume of nearly 600 pages, printed in the best style, and presenting to the reader every item of interest that during the previous year in any manner affected this grand lodge.

The executive grand officers re-elected in 1870 were—

WILLIAM SEWALL GARDNER, of Boston, Grand Master.

JOHN M'CLELLAN, of Boston, Grand Treasurer.

OLON THORNTON, of Boston, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized "by a constitutional number of lodges in 1841," such lodges being of those which had not dissolved pursuant to the resolution adopted by the convention in 1829, suspending in that territory all Masonic labor.— This convention was composed of members of the first grand lodge organized at Detroit in 1826, and of which Gen. Lewis Cass was elected the first grand master. The annual communications of the present grand lodge occur in January, at the City of Detroit. In 1860 there were 122 lodges, with a total membership of 5,816. In 1870 there were 286 lodges, with a total membership of 22,172. The annual revenue of this grand lodge is about $9,000, of which the larger part is disbursed in paying mileage and per diem to its members. A balance of about $10,000 in 1871 constituted the entire treasury of this grand lodge. A proposition, made in 1869, to tax the whole membership for the purpose of building a Masonic Temple at Detroit did not meet a favorable reception, and was consequently abandoned.

The executive grand officers elect in 1871 were—

JOHN W. CHAMPLIN, of Grand Rapids, Grand Master.

HENRY CHAMBERLAIN, of Three Oaks, Deputy Gr. Master.

RUFUS W. LONDON, of Niles, Grand Treasurer.

JAMES FENTON, of Detroit, Grand Secretary.

For the following information we are indebted to the courtesy of the Gr. Sec'y, who from the lodge Returns for 1871 kindly supplied the names of such secretaries as had refused or failed to reply to our circulars, mailed to each, requesting the favor of such reply. Otherwise, the Proceedings of G. L. for 1871 has been referred to.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at the City of St. Paul, Feb. 23, 1853, by the representatives of the three lodges in the State, chartered respectively by the grand lodges of Ohio, Wisconsin, and Illinois, and Dr. A. E. Ames was elected the first grand master. Its annual communications are held in the City of St. Paul in January. The increase of lodges since 1853 has kept pace with the increase of population. In 1871 there were 80 lodges, with a total membership of 4,588. During previous years a fund of $3,000 had been invested for benevolent, which, in 1870, was nearly all spent for business purposes, and of which the principal amount was expended in publishing a reprint of the Proceedings of this grand lodge from 1853 to 1869, inclusive. A fine volume, bound in cloth, has been produced, the sales of which are expected to reimburse the expenditure involved in the production of this book. The revenue for 1870 was $3,237.50, one half which was expended paying mileage and per diem to the officers and members of the G. L., after paying which the G. T. reported the entire treasury, including all funds, at less than $2,000.

The executive grand officers re-elected in 1871 were—

C. W. NASH, of St. Paul. Grand Master.

G. GRISWOLD, of St. Charles, Deputy Grand Master.

GEORGE L. OTIS, of St. Paul, Grand Treasurer.

WILLIAM S. COMBS, of St. Paul, Grand Secretary.

The following information we collect from the Proceedings of G. L. for 1871, with such changes made therein as the later data supplied by Breth'n lodge secretaries enabled us to make.

Missouri.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on the 24th of April, 1821, at St. Louis, by representatives from the three lodges then in the territory, all holding charters from the G. L. of Tenn., the earliest of such charters being dated in October, 1816, and the latest in February, 1821, and Thos. F. Rennick was elected the first grand master. On the 4th of the following May at the installation instead of T. F. Renick, the grand master first installed was Nathaniel B. Tucker. In 1825 Gen. Lafayette and his son, Geo. Washington Lafayette, were elected by acclamation honorary members of this grand lodge, and being introduced, were received by the grand loge standing, an address being delivered by the Gr. Tr., to which Gen. Lafayette replied. In 1831 this grand lodge refused to adopt a proposition to dissolve, in view of the anti-masonic feeling then extant. In 1841 it purchased about 1350 acres of land, with the improvements thereon, with which to establish a Masonic College, and which College was dedicated on the 24th June, 1845. In 1847 this College was located at Lexington, the citizens of that town having subscribed $33,000 for the erection of necessary buildings, of which the corner-stone was laid on the 18th May, 1847, the grand master G. H. C. Melody presiding. An endowment fund of $53,000 was announced as the sale of scholarships, and the grand lodge made provision, up to 1860, for the board, clothing, and education of one orphan from each Masonic District into which the State was then divided. In 1861 the College property was presented to the State of Missouri, on the single condition that the State establish it as a first class Normal School, but, instead, it was during the subsequent four years converted into a Military School, then gradually abandoned, and on the 22d of March, 1870, the State reconveyed the property to the G. L., and in October of that year, a committee of that body was appointed to advertise for sale, and deed the whole property to the best bidder for it.

This grand lodge holds its annual communications in October. in St. Louis. Past Masters are recognized as members. It pays neither mileage nor per diem. Its attempt in 1869 to tax the membership of the lodges $1 a year for a series of years, to buy a Masonic Temple in St. Louis, was not favorably regarded, and the project being abandoned, the funds collected under the first year's levy were returned to the lodges. In 1870 there were 388 lodges, with a total membership of 18,493. The business of the grand secretary is most efficiently performed by the present officer, and he is liberally paid. The G. L. Proceedings are printed on the finest paper, and in the best manner; and this grand lodge, while not possessed of any treasury worthy of mention, is in easy circumstances, and, without lowering its self-respect by discussing at length the merits of the object can and does donate of its means to charity as occasion demands. There are at present 38 Masonic Districts, for each of which a District D. G. M. is appointed.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

THOMAS E. GARRETT of St. Louis, Grand Master
 RUFUS E. ANDERSON, of Palmyra, Deputy Gr. Master.
 WILLIAM N. LOKER, of St. Louis, Grand Treasurer.
 GEO. FRANK GOULEY, of St. Louis, Grand Secretary.

Mississippi.

The Grand Lodge in this State was informally organized by the representatives of three lodges in the State on the 27th July, 1818. Those lodges held charters respectively from the grand lodges of Kentucky and Tennessee. On the 25th of the following August a second convention was held, when this grand lodge was regularly organized, Henry Tooley being elected the first grand master. The annual communications are held in January at such place as may at the previous session be selected. That for 1871 was held at Vicksburg, when it appeared that there were 278 lodges with a total membership of 11,254 Master Masons. This grand lodge pays mileage and per diem to its members, among which Past Masters are recognized. The revenue reported in January, 1871, was sufficient to pay $8,200 mileage, &c., and, after paying other allowances, the G. T. reported $56.75 on hand, with $162.28 due him for his commissions account. Since 1860 the lodges have decreased in this State 50 in number, while in membership those remaining have increased about ten per cent. The jurisdiction is divided into ten districts, with a District D. G. M. who is appointed by the G. M. elect, in charge of each. In April, 1871, this grand lodge was incorporated by the State legislature.

The executive grand officers nearly all re-elected in 1871 were—

GEORGE R. FEARN, of Canton, Grand Master.

E. T. HENRY, of Vicksburg, Deputy Gr. Master.

GEO. H. GRAY, Sr., of Clinton, Grand Treasurer.

J. L. POWER, of Jackson, Grand Secretary.

The following information we collect from the Proceedings of G. L. for 1871, with such changes made therein as the later data supplied by Breth'n lodge secretaries enabled us to make.

The Grand Lodge in this Territory, was organized at Virginia City on the 24th January 1866, and John J. Hull, was elected the first grand master. Its annual communications occur in October, at such place as may at the previous session have been elected. In 1870 there were in the territory 14 lodges, with a total membership of about 500. This grand lodge recognizes Past Masters as members and voters, and pays all its officers and members mileage and per diem. Its revenues are barely sufficient to do so and meet necessary current expenses, at present ; but time will correct this.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

N. P. LANGFORD, of Helena, Grand Master.

J. R. WESTON, of Diamond City, Deputy Gr Master.

HENRY ELLING, of Virginia, Grand Treasurer.

SOL. STAR, of Helena, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Omaha City, on the 14th of September, 1857, by the representatives of three lodges in the State, the third of which had been chartered but in the previous month of June, and each of which had been chartered by a different grand lodge. R. C. Jordan was chosen as the first grand master. Its annual communications occur in June, at such place as may at the previous session be elected. An annual tax of fifty cents per capita is levied upon the membership at large to create an "Orphan's Educational Fund." In 1870 this fund amounted to $2,634.21, and placed by its Trustees at 12 per cent. interest. The annual revenue of this grand lodge is sufficient to meet current expenses, and also to pay mileage and per diem to its officers and members, the amount of the latter, in 1870, being $377.20. In that year there were in the jurisdiction 31 lodges, with a total membership of 1379. The business of this grand lodge, as is apparent from the well-arranged and printed Proceedings for 1870, is by the present grand officers conducted in the best manner, and at a moderate charge for current expenses. As an efficient officer the present grand secretary is duly recognized from the fact that, after serving four years in that office, he was elected successively D. G. M. and G. M., to which latter office he was re-elected in 1866, and, in 1869, again re-elected to the office of Gr. Sec'y.

The executive grand officers, all re-elected in 1870, were—

H. P. DEUEL, of Omaha City, Grand Master.

W. E. HILL, of Nebraska City, Deputy Gr. Master.

GEO. B. GRAFF, of Omaha City, Grand Treasurer.

R. W. FURNAS, of Brownsville, Grand Secretary.

The following information we collect from the Proceedings of G. L. for 1870, with such changes made therein as the later data supplied by Breth'n lodge secretaries enabled us to make.

New Hampshire.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Dartmouth, on the 8th of July, 1789, by delegates from all the lodges in the State at that time, and consequently this must be regarded* as the first independent grand lodge that was thus regularly constituted in all North America. Hon. John Sullivan, then President of the State of N. H., (before the title "Governor") was the first grand master. This grand lodge has annual and semi-annual communications, the first occurring on the 18th and 19th of May, and the last on the 28th of December. In 1870 there were 71 lodges in the jurisdiction, and a total membership of 6,612 Master Masons. This grand lodge derives its revenue but from dispensations, charters, diplomas, and a tax on initiations; and as the increase of membership is necessarily slow in a State whose population is decreasing, the revenue of this grand lodge is therefore very limited, and barely sufficient to meet current expenses.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

JOHN R. HOLBROOK, of Portsmouth, Grand Master.

N. M. CUMNER, of Manchester, Deputy Gr. Master,

DANIEL R. BARRET, of Nashua, Grand Treasurer.

ABEL HUTCHINS, of Concord, Grand Secretary.

From the well-printed Proceedings of this grand lodge for 1870 we present the following list of the lodges in this State. Wherein it differs the information has been more recently supplied by the lodge secretaries, in response to our circulars.

Nevada.

The Grand Lodge of this State was organized on the 12th October, 1865, at Virginia City, being the year in which the State of Nevada was cut off mainly from California, and at which time there were in the former eight lodges, all chartered by the G. L. of the latter State. Its annual communications occur in September, at Virginia City. It pays neither mileage nor per diem to officers or members. Its revenue, equal in 1870 to $2.20 per capita from its total membership, was but sufficient to meet current expenses. In that year there were in the State 14 lodges, with 992 members.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

GEORGE ROBINSON, of Washoe City, Grand Master.

M. A. SAWTELLE, of Austin, Deputy Grand Master.

SAMUEL W. CHUBBUCK, of Gold Hill, Grand Treasurer.

WM. A. M. VAN BOKKELEN, of Virginia, Grand Secretary.

New Jersey.

According to the latest history of the matter—that published by the grand secretary in 1870—the Grand Lodge in this State was organized at the town of New Brunswick, on the 18th December, 1786, by an assembly of Master Masons, hailing indifferently from lodges in that and other States. It was a singular affair and unique in the manner of it. Beyond the choice in some way expressed (it does not appear that they were elected by ballot,) of seven grand officers, this “association” at that time proceeded not. Of those officers Hon. David Brearley, then the Chief Justice of New Jersey, was chosen the first grand master. Of what lodge he was a member, if of any in that State or any other, does not appear; and the same can be remarked of his deputy. On the 30th of the following January those seven officers, being the usual six elect with the addition of a deputy grand secretary, were installed, and thereupon this grand lodge immediately began to exercise the functions of such a body, by chartering lodges, &c. After July, 1789, Hon. D. Brearley, however, no more appears as grand master, although in the subsequent January he was “re-appointed” grand master, and installed by proxy, nor is there any reason assigned for his disappearance. After the July session, in 1790, the endorsement of the new “Rules and Regulations” then adopted shows that there were at this time 8 lodges in the State, numbered from 1 to 8, inclusive, all of which had been originally dispensated and subsequently warranted (chartered) by this grand lodge; and thus proving that in the State of New Jersey there existed but one lodge on the 18th Dec. 1786, viz. St. John’s, (location not given but believed to be the then town of Newark,) of which Moses Ogden, then present, signed himself a member. In his introductory remarks Bro. Hough, it is true, asserts that “Lodge, No. 10” was in 1786 located at Bedminster, and “Lodge, No. 32” at Burlington; but he subsequently renders the fact clear that both of those lodges had ceased to work for some years previous, that in consequence their warrants had been called in by the G. L. in Pennsylvania, on whose registry they had stood, and that they were entirely extinct by 1786. Hence it is evident that those who hailed from either of them at the assembly of Dec. 18, 1786, did so simply as quondam officers and members, and in no wise as delegates ; particularly so was this the case with regard to those of " No. 10," for in the latter part of the minutes, written 13th January, 1787, " No. 10, Pennsylvania," follows the names of all but one of those who attached their signatures on that occasion, as endorsers of the previous (Dec. 18) movement. It may be added that of those endorsers, sixteen in all, twelve hailed from lodges in Pennsylvania, (including those from " No. 10,") and three respectively from Albany, N. Y., Boston, Mass., and Liverpool, England.

From the year 1790 this grand lodge seems to have been conducted in a carefully circumspect manner. In January, 1791, new officers were chosen, among which, of the original officers, only appear the grand master elect and deputy grand secretary. That the organization was entirely satisfactory is evident, as no subsequent attempt to organize a grand lodge in what is to-day considered the regular manner seems to have been at any time even suggested ; and this is certainly a pungent sarcasm on those hodiernal Masonic jurisconsults, who decide as incorrect and the organization irregular, if not clandestine, any movement not in accord with their dicta having for its object the establishment of a grand lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons.

The annual communications of this grand lodge occur in January, usually at Trenton. In 1871 there were in the jurisdiction 118 lodges with 9,164 members. Unlike other grand lodges, in this the first six elective officers attend to their official duties during the year, and report at the annual session ; consequently, instead of but four, there are six executive grand officers elect, and who for 1871 were—

WM. E. PINE, of Cresskill, Grand Master.

WM. W. GOODWIN, of Camden, Deputy Gr. Master.

NATHAN HAINES, of Burlington, Senior Gr. Warden.

JAMES V. BENTLEY, of Morristown, Junior Gr. Warden.

WM. R. CLAPP, of Trenton, Grand Treasurer.

JOSEPH H. HOUGH, of Trenton, Grand Secretary.

• This grand lodge has nothing invested in real estate. It pays neither mileage nor per diem to officers or members. It appoints a deputy grand secretary, who is paid his expenses only, also a grand lecturer, whose services being continuous he is paid a fair recompense. The revenue is modest, and but sufficient to meet current expenses.

The following information we collect from the Proceedings of G. L. for 1871. with such changes made therein as the later data supplied by the lodge secretaries enabled us to make.

New York.

The Grand Lodge in this State has been organized at various times. As early as 1782 a Provincial Grand Lodge was chartered by that London grand lodge of which Laurence Dermott was grand secretary, which became independent in 1783 by resignation of the original officers and their departure with the British troops when they evacuated New York City ; but for many years this body was not recognized as having jurisdiction over the brethren within the whole State. Subsequently there were extant for some years a "City" grand lodge and a "Country" grand lodge, which, in 1827, united for more effective resistance to the anti-masonic excitement, which at that time had attained considerable force. Until 1836 this united grand lodge was supreme, but, in that year, a body styled "St. John's Grand Lodge" was organized by brethren who considered themselves harshly treated and unduly punished by the G. L. endorsing the action of a "Grand Steward's Lodge ;" and for thirteen years this "St. John's Grand Lodge" performed all the functions of such an organization, and until 1850, when it coalesced with what for one year had then been known as the "Willard," or generally recognized grand lodge, in contradistinction to a third body organized in 1849, and known as the irregular, or "Phillips" grand lodge, and which for nine years performed all the functions of a grand lodge until, in 1858, it amalgamated with the other, on terms satisfactory to both ; and since which time there has been but one grand lodge in the State of New York—the largest Masonic grand lodge jurisdiction at present in North America.

The annual sessions of this grand lodge are held in the City of New York, commencing on the first Tuesday of June. In 1871 there were holding under this grand lodge 656 lodges, with a total membership of 77,079 Master Masons—an average of 102 members to each lodge. Those lodges are divided into 25 districts, with each in charge of a Dist. D. G. M., who is appointed by the grand master elect, and reports annually. The annual revenue received from the lodges by this grand lodge amounts to about $65,000, one-third of which, taxed on initiations, is passed to the credit of the "Hall and Asylum Fund," and subsequent to 1871 this amount will be increased by 25 cents per capita of the total membership in the State, or equal at present to about $20,000 more. To the various "Relief Lodges" in the State this grand lodge pays annually about $6,500, and about $1000 to especially deserving objects of its charity, a few of whom may be regarded as pensioners upon its bounty. The balance of its annual revenue is expended paying mileage and per diem to members, salaries to its officers, and the necessary current expenses. Within the past few years every lesser consideration has been merged in the erection of a grand temple, for which the "Hall and Asylum Fund,"—the accumulation of many years and various combinations—has been appropriated. With $340,000 invested in the land upon which this temple is in course of erection, in the City of New York, and, to May 1871, about $100,000 expended in construction, &c., with the earnest efforts of the Trustees to keep out of debt, the certain completion of this temple is in no wise doubtful. Those Trustees are the first five officers elect of the grand lodge, and hence the re-election of those officers during the construction of the temple becomes necessary, to the end that they be allowed to execute the trust confided to them in manner satisfactory to themselves and the large and wealthy constituency they represent.

These officers, therefore, re-elected in 1871 were—

JOHN H. ANTHON, of New York City, Grand Master.
CHRISTOPHER G. FOX, of Buffalo, Deputy Gr. Master.
EDMUND L. JUDSON, of Albany, Senior Gr. Warden.
JAMES W. HUSTED, of Peekskill, Junior Gr. Warden.
JOHN W. SIMONS, of N. Y. City, Grand Treasurer.
JAMES M. AUSTIN, of N. Y. City, Grand Secretary.

For the following information we are indebted to the courtesy of the Gr. Sec'y, who from the lodge Returns for 1871 kindly supplied the names of such secretaries as had refused or failed to reply to our circulars, mailed to each, requesting the favor of such reply, and carefully corrected the whole list, including the membership column, wherever our manuscript was incorrect. Otherwise, the uniformly well-arranged and printed Transactions of G. L. for 1871 has been referred to.

North Carolina.

According to the best information obtainable, the first independent grand lodge in this State was organized in 1787 by a convention of brethren, in manner somewhat like the movement in New Jersey the previous year, to the extent at least that the members of this convention were not appointed by any lodge for the work they performed at Hillsborough, except, it may be, those who represented the lodge at that place. Indeed the movement may be considered as, mainly, the act of that lodge. The Hon. Samuel Johnson, President of the State, was elected the first grand master—an act which was of itself, at the time, sufficient to legalize the performance, and neutralize any opposition that might be met. There is no evidence, however, that any such was offered. In those days Masonic grand lodges did not spring up in a night armed for battle; they excited little attention or question as to the legal or illegal manner of their organization, as they had exercised but little consequence in the spread of Masonry. It is but in our own day that nice shades of regularity are striven for in this matter, and their attainment regarded necessary.

This grand lodge holds its annual communication in the City of Raleigh in December. In Dec. 1870 there were holding under its charters 199, lodges, with 10,204 members. To this the Gr. Sec'y adds 905, as "obtained from the last returns of lodges failing to make returns in 1870," and thus obtains a "total membership and resident Masons not members of lodges" of 11,109. This grand lodge pays neither mileage nor per diem. Its revenue in 1870 was $2,986.48, and after the necessary payments were made the G. T. reported a balance in hand of $779.68. This grand lodge owns the wreck of a property, located in the town of Oxford, known as "Saint John's College," and which is in its present valueless condition incumbered with claims amounting to about $4,000. The latest decision of the grand lodge concerning it is to sell it if possible—a matter that previous efforts renders doubtful.

The executive grand officers elected (the D. G. M. is appointed,) in 1870 were—

CHARLES G. CLARK, of New Berne, Grand Master.

JOSEPH B. BATCHELOR, of Raleigh, Deputy Gr. Master.

WM. E. ANDERSON, of Raleigh, Grand Treasurer.

DONALD W. BAIN, of Raleigh, Grand Secretary.

The following list is obtained from the printed Proceedings of the G. L. for 1870, exclusively, no circulars having been sent to the lodges in this State.

Ohio.

The following account of the organization of the Grand Lodge in this State, copied from the American Freemason for April, 1870, is worthy of a place in this connection, as being quite exact :

“ On the 4th of January 1808, it was decided by the representatives of five of the six lodges then existing in this State, who had met in convention for that purpose in Chillicothe, then the capital of the State, to organize a grand lodge. Those lodges were located, respectively, at Marietta, Cincinnati, Chillicothe, Warren and Zanesville. The sixth lodge, located at Worthington, was also represented, but the credentials of its representative being pronounced informal, a seat in the convention was refused him. Four days were occupied with the proceedings of this convention, and, at their close, eleven brethren, constituting the total representation, subscribed their names to the proceedings, after electing nine of their number officers of the proposed grand lodge, and a tenth, not present, Gen. Rufus Putnam, then resident at Marietta, grand master. On the succeeding 2d of January, representatives from four of those lodges eleven in number, met at the same place, and being in doubt whether there were a sufficient number of lodges represented to organize a grand lodge—Dermott’s Ahiman Rezon being their guide, and it requiring five—finally concluded to organize, and, having done so, they prepared a circular letter to the other grand lodges in the United States, announcing their organization ; then, after adopting for the time being the constitution of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, a Past Masters’ Lodge was opened, and the Deputy Gr. Master elect, Thomas Henderson, of Cincinnati Lodge was introduced by the Sen’r Gr. Warden elect, and by him duly installed. The Past Masters’ Lodge was then closed, and a Master’s lodge opened, when “ the several subordinate officers elected by the convention ” the previous January “ were, by the Deputy G. M. regularly installed.” In a letter very creditable to the old hero, Gen. Putnam resigned, and the grand lodge thereupon went into election of officers for the year 1809. But ten delegates being present, they were all elected and installed, with Samuel Huntington, of Erie Lodge, at Warren in Trumbull County, as Grand Master, and who was, therefore, the first actual grand master the brethren in Ohio ever had ; while Gen. Lewis Cass, then representing Amity Lodge, at Zanesville, was the first actual deputy grand master.

“ A precedent established by necessity was exercised, it will be observed, in the fact that the brethren did not look beyond their own assembly for a grand officer to install them. The Senior Gr. Warden elect, George Tod, did, on this occasion, install the Dep. Gr. Mr. Thomas Henderson, before he was installed himself, and thereupon the Dep. G. M. Henderson installed Tod and all the other officers elect, including the grand master.”

This grand lodge has no stated place of meeting : its annual communications are held at the place elected at the previous meeting in October. In 1870 there were 403 lodges, with a total membership of 24,087. The annual revenue of this grand lodge is sufficient to pay mileage and per diem. the current expenses, and generally leaves a surplus which, in 1870, the grand treasurer reported had accumulated in his hands to the sum of $11,805.96. Compared with the constituency, the expenses of the grand secretary's office is the least known to any grand lodge, being for salaries, postage, and office rent, fuel, light, and stationery, about $3 for each lodge in the jurisdiction.

The executive grand officers, all re-elected in 1870, were—

ALEX. H. NEWCOMB, of Toledo, Grand Master.

PHILIP M. WAGENHALLS, of Lancaster, Dep. Gr. Master.

FLAVIUS J. PHILLIPS, of Georgetown, Grand Treasurer.

JOHN D. CALDWELL, of Cincinnati, Grand Secretary.

Oregon.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Oregon City on the 16th August, 1851, by three lodges, two of which held charters from the G. L. of California, and Berryman Jennings was elected the first grand master. The annual communications are held in June at such place as may at the preceding meeting be elected. In 1870 there were at work 39 lodges, with 1441 members. This grand lodge has chartered in all 50 lodges. Of those the charters of six were surrendered for sufficient cause ; four became constituents of the G. L. in Washington Territory, and three of that in Idaho Territory. This grand lodge pays mileage and per diem to its members. Its cash revenue is moderate, being in 1870 reported at about $2,000, the same being insufficient to pay the matter of mileage and per diem for that year—two representatives having over 800 miles to travel, and one nearly 900, and all paid at the rate of 15 cents a mile. This grand lodge, it would seem, does much of its business on time payments, taking and giving promissory notes. It has an "Educational Fund," loaned on bond and mortgage—a matter of voluntary subscription authorized by resolution of the grand lodge in 1854, and in 1869 by same declared to be irreducible, but that it be allowed to accumulate for five years, by adding interest to principal. In 1870 this fund amounted to $10,400, and the ultimate disposition of it is yet to be determined. There is also a Relief Fund, of uncertain amount, contributed by a minor part of the lodges, and the disposition of which seems to be limited annually to a few beneficiaries.

The executive grand officers, all re-elected in 1870, were—

D. G. CLARK, of Corvallis, Grand Master.

T. McF. PATTON, of Salem, Dep. Gr. Master.

B. F. BROWN, of Salem, Grand Treasurer.

J. E. HURFORD, of Portland, Grand Secretary.

Pennsylvania.

the Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Philadelphia by the representatives of about one half of the lodges in the State on the 26th of September, 1786, or three months previous to the New Jersey movement, and three years subsequent to the evacuation of the United States by the British forces. It holds quarterly communications, and, on the 27th of December, a grand annual communication in Philadelphia, when the election of officers takes place. In 1871 there were 315 lodges in the jurisdiction, and, up to 27th Dec. 1870, there were reported 30,488 members as belonging to but 269 of those lodges, leaving the true membership of 46 lodges unknown to the reader of G. L. Proceedings for that year, but estimated by the grand master in his address at 2,470. The principal business of this grand lodge is the construction of the New Temple in Philadelphia, upon which, for the purchase of the site and construction accounts to Dec. 1870, there had been expended $619,614. To raise a great part of this money, and continue the construction to completion every resource and asset is pressed into the service. A bonded loan has been put on the market from which there had been realized up to the above date $514,325. In this the Grand Charity Fund of $50,000, the Girard Fund of $50,000, with their unexpended interest accumulations in addition, have been invested, while the balance realized from the loan up to that date had been taken by the Grand Chapter of Pennsylvania, 52 lodges, 14 Mark Lodges, Chapters and Encampments, principally in Philadelphia, "25 lodges, etc., of kindred societies, such as Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, United Americans, &c. and 172 individuals." All fees, including charter fees and fees for the degrees, have been raised, the former to $200, and the latter in Philadelphia city and county lodges to $75, and in all others to $40. It is expected that these extraordinary measures, and the continued sale of the bonded loan, will enable the building committee to complete the New Temple. The financial affairs of the grand lodge are in keep.

ing of men of ability, and who will, its believed, conduct them to a successful issue.

The jurisdiction is divided into 28 districts, each in charge of a District D. G. M. appointed by the G. M. elect. If they report, such reports do not appear in the G. L. Proceedings—these for 1871 being mainly occupied with For. Cor. and Building Committees and Charity Funds reports, and the address of the grand master, and contain little if any information of a statistical character concerning the condition of the lodges.

The executive grand officers re-elected for 1871 were—

ROBERT A. LAMBERTON, of Harrisburg, Grand Master.

SAMUEL C. PERKINS, of Philadelphia, Deputy Gr. Master.

PETER WILLIAMSON, of Philadelphia. Grand Treasurer

JOHN THOMPSON, of Philadelphia. Grand Secretary.

Rhode Island.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Providence, on the 6th of April. 1791. by the only two lodges then in the State, and which had been both chartered by the Provincial grand lodge of Massachusetts. Christopher Champlin was elected the first grand master. Not until 1799 did a third lodge exist in Rhode Island, such third lodge being chartered by this grand lodge. The masonic year ends in March, and the annual communication in December. In 1870 there were 25 lodges, with 3.335 members of all grades. By this grand lodge no dues are exacted from the lodges except $4 per capita for new "makings," consequently the revenue is but sufficient to meet current expenses. There being no dues exacted by the grand lodge, the same rule prevails among the lodges, hence there is no discipline for nonpayment of dues. Masonry in this State, as in Connecticut adjoining, is not a joint stock monied corporation, but a fraternity, under the direction of a master.

The executive grand officers elected for 1871 were—

THOMAS A. DOYLE, of Providence, Grand Master.

LLOYD MORTON, of Pawtucket, Deputy Gr. Master.

GARDNER T. SWARTS, of Providence, Grand Treasurer.

EDWARD B. KNIGHT, of Providence, Grand Secretary.

From the Proceedings of the G. L. for 1870 the following list is compiled. Where it differs the information has been supplied by the lodge secretary.

South Carolina.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized in 1817 for the last time by the final union of the two grand lodges which, for some years previously had, together and separately, exercised equal jurisdiction, the one known as the Grand Lodge of South Carolina, and the other as the Grand Lodge of Ancient York Masons. The first derived its authority through appointments by G. M's of Grand Lodge of England, and the second through charters granted by Laurence Dermott's grand lodge; and not until four years after the union in England of those grand lodges did a union in South Carolina of their offspring take place. The annual communication of this grand lodge convenes at Charleston in November. In 1870 there were 146 lodges, with 6,200 members, in the jurisdiction. The report of a committee on G. T's books made it apparent that in Nov., 1870, this grand lodge was about $4,000 short. It pays mileage and per diem, and has a Grand Hall in the City of Charleston, which it is proposed to sell and build a new one that will be a more profitable investment.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

WM. K. BLAKE, of Spartanburg, Grand Master.

R. S. BRUNS, of Charleston, Deputy Grand Master.

W. H. SCHROEDER, of Charleston, Grand Treasurer.

B. RUSH CAMPBELL, of Charleston, Grand Secretary.

Repeated applications to the grand secretary, continued up to the last day the preparation of these plates could be delayed, having failed in eliciting from him any response, either with or without a list of the lodge secretaries' names, we are unable to present them more completely than we here do—those given being supplied us directly in response to our circulars.

Tennessee.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Knoxville, on 27th December, 1813, by representatives of the several lodges in the State which held charters from the G. L. of No. Carolina, and Thomas Claiborne was elected the first grand master. The annual communication occurs at Nashville in October. In 1870 there were 338 lodges, with 18,601 members. This grand lodge pays mileage and per diem. At the 1870 annual session, after $13,856.60 was disbursed by him, the balance in G. Tr's hands was $219.85. The annual revenue is about $10,000. A very effective effort is being made in this jurisdiction to have a fund equal to $1000 from each lodge in it raised to endow an Orphans' Home. Up to 1870 about $80,000 had been pledged by about as many lodges. An Act of the Tennessee legislature passed on the 30th Nov., 1869, incorporates the "Masonic Orphans' Home, and for other purposes," of which Thomas Anderson is president. The "other purposes," covers life insurance privileges, giving the corporators power to go into that business in aid of the endowment. This feature may be regarded as the hodiernal substitute for the lottery incorporations of other days ; and while, in the event of failure to suitably endow the "home," the subscriptions are returnable to the subscribers, the money derived from this feature is liable and excepted. This privilege, up to 1870, had not been put into operation, and probably will not be, as the subscriptions have been liberal, and it is deemed best not to hazard the success of the "home" project by speculating in human life assurance.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were,—

JOHN C. BROWN, of Pulaski, Grand Master.

TOWNSEND A. THOMAS, of Clarksville, Dep. Gr. Master.

JOHN M'CLELLAND, of Nashville, Grand Treasurer.

JOHN FRIZZELL, of Nashville, Grand Secretary.

From the G. L. Proceedings for 1870 we arrange the following information, in which the names of Secretaries not received in reply to our request have been courteously supplied by the grand secretary, Bro. John Frizzell.

Texas.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Houston, on the 20th December, 1837, by representatives from the three lodges then in the State, holding charters from the G. L. of Louisiana, and Anson Jones was elected the first grand master. Its annual communication takes place at Houston in June. In 1870 there were 263 lodges with 11,500 members. This grand lodge is constructing a Masonic Temple at Houston. Its revenue for year ending in June 1870, was about $10,000. Of this $1,147 was contributed to the Grand Charity Fund—a fund that, like nearly all of the kind, is a Charity Fund but in name, and, also like them, sunk in a new temple. This immense State is at present divided into thirty-five Masonic Districts, for each of which a Dist. Deputy G. M. is appointed, and whose expenses of visiting the lodges are paid by the grand lodge, unless provided for by the lodges visited. Neither mileage nor per diem are paid by this grand lodge, and the attendance, consequently, of members is sparse, the lodges being represented in great part by proxy.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

CLINTON M. WINKLER, of Corsicana, Grand Master.

T. J. H. ANDERSON, of Port Sullivan, Dep. Gr. Master.

BENJ. A. BOTTS, of Houston, Grand Treasurer.

GEO. H. BRINGHURST, of Houston, Grand Secretary.

From the Proceedings of the G. L. for 1870 the following list is compiled. Where it differs the information has been supplied by the lodge secretary.

Vermont.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized by the representatives of the lodges in the State on the 19th of October, 1794. The number of those lodges we have been unable to ascertain. In the early provincial times Vermont was claimed as a part of N. York; but whether this fact led brethren to apply to any Prov. G. M. in the latter for a lodge charter, and receive the same, or not, we are at present unable to determine. Not previous to 1781 does there appear to have been a lodge in Vt. In that year one was chartered by the Boston 1777 grand lodge, and it subsequently was known as Vermont Lodge, No. 1. Four years afterward another lodge was chartered by the same authority, and there is no evidence at our command, nor can we ascertain from any record, that more than those two lodges existed in that State when the grand lodge was organized in 1794, nor at any previous time. We are thus particular in the expression of this matter, as the fact that two lodges, if they compose the whole number within a grand lodge jurisdiction, are as competent to organize a grand lodge as any greater number has been established by the action of such a number, respectively, in the States of Rhode Island and Vermont.

In 1870 there were 91 lodges with a total membership of 7,747 within the jurisdiction of this grand lodge. Paying mileage and per diem, with a revenue of about $1,000, necessarily leaves a low treasury. With an accumulated Charity Fund of less than $500, its total assets in 1870 were about $3,500. There are 14 Dist. Dep. G. M's in charge each of a Masonic District, after the manner in other States.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

GEORGE M. HALL, of Swanton, Grand Master.

PARK DAVIS, of St. Alban's, Dep. Gr. Master.

CHAS. W. WOODHOUSE, of Burlington, Grand Treasurer.

HENRY CLARK, of Rutland, Grand Secretary.

From the Proceedings of the G. L. for 1870 the following list is compiled. Where it differs the information has been supplied by the lodge secretary.

Virginia.

According to the most reliable information, viz. that contained in an address of the veteran grand secretary Bro. John Dove, M. D., of Richmond, Va. on the history of the G. L. of Va., four of the lodges in the State did, on the 13th of October, 1778, organize the Grand Lodge in this State by the election of John Blair as the first grand master. At the time there were in this State lodges holding charters respectively from grand lodges in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and a Prov. G. M. in Pennsylvania. No other organization of a grand lodge subsequently took place—the lodges of the various registers gradually, after the ratification of peace between Great Britain and America. submitting to the organization of 1778 above mentioned. In 1870 there were 173 lodges and 8,555 members. The revenue is about $5,000 a year, and as this grand lodge pays neither mileage nor per diem, it is sufficient to meet all necessary current expenses. This grand lodge has funded property to the value in 1870 of $26,600, the principal part of which comprises the capital stock of the Masonic Temple Association, the object of which is the erection of the New Masonic Temple in the City of Richmond. The State is divided into 29 districts, each in charge of a Dist. D. G. M. appointed by the G. M. elect. This grand lodge has no Deputy G. M.—the duties of that officer being administered by a Grand Lecturer. The ann. com. is in December.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

THOMAS F. OWENS, of Richmond. Grand Master.

JOHN DOVE, of Richmond, Grand Secretary.

WM. B. ISAACS, of Richmond, Deputy Gr. Secretary.

THOS. U. DUDLEY, of Richmond, Grand Treasurer.

JAMES EVANS, of Richmond, Grand Lecturer.

Washington.

The Grand Lodge in this Territory was organized by the representatives of four lodges, all chartered by the G. L. of Oregon, meeting in convention at Olympia on the 6th of December, 1858, and who, on the 7th, elected their officers, with T. F. McElroy as the first grand master. The annual communication occurs in September at Olympia City. In 1870 there were 13 lodges with 417 members—one of those lodges being at Sitka, in Alaska Territory. The revenue for 1870 was $991.50 of which $387 was appropriated to pay mileage and per diem.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

JOHN T. JORDAN, of Seattle, Grand Master.

JAMES H. BLEWETT, of Walla Walla, Dep. Gr. Master.

BENJ. HARNED, of Olympia, Grand Treasurer.

THOS. M. REED, of Olympia, Grand Secretary.

From the Proceedings of the G. L. for 1870 the following list is compiled. Where it differs the information has been supplied by the lodge secretary.

West Virginia.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized on the 10th of May, 1865. by delegates from nine lodges, who met for that purpose at Fairmont, and W. J. Bates. was the first grand master. The annual communication takes place at Wheeling in November. In 1870 there were 43 lodges, with 2,140 members, and three lodges in the State holding the charters of and subject only to the G. L. of Virginia, under which they were organized. No difficulty has followed this arrangement. At the annual communication for 1870 it was resolved to thereafter pay mileage and per diem to the representatives. The revenue up to that year had been sufficient to meet current expenses, and leave a balance of $545 in the treasury.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

WM. J. BATES, of Wheeling, Grand Master.

ROBERT WHITE, of Romney, Deputy Grand Master.

WM. P. WILSON, of Wheeling, Grand Treasurer.

THOS. LOGAN, of Wheeling, Grand Secretary.

Wisconsin.

The Grand Lodge in this State was organized at Madison on the 18th of December, 1843, by representatives from the three lodges then in the State, and which at present stand first on the list, all chartered originally by the G. L. of Mo., and B. T. Kavanaugh, then W. M. of Melody Lodge, of Platteville, although not present, was elected the first grand master. The annual communication takes place at Milwaukee in June. In June, 1870, there were 160 lodges, with 8,944 members in the State. Although this grand lodge pays mileage and per diem, the revenue is sufficient to meet current expenses, and there was a balance on hand and invested at the above date of $10,065.96.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

GABRIEL BOECK, of Oshkosh, Grand Master.

J. HAMILTON, of Milwaukee, Deputy Gr. Master,

WM. H. HINER, of Fond du Lac, Grand Treasurer.

WM. T. PALMER, of Milwaukee, Grand Secretary.

British Columbia.

A Grand Lodge for this Province was organized on the 24th of Dec., 1867, at Victoria, Vancouver's Island, by representatives from the four lodges in the Colony. and Isa. W. Powell was elected the first grand master. No information later than 1869 has been received from there, and hence our register of this body must be and remain imperfect. Four lodges with 142 members, so far as known, are all which were in the province in May, 1869. Of these lodges three were originally chartered by the G. L. of Scotland, and one by the G. L. of England. H. F. HEISTERMAN, of Victoria, is the present grand Secretary.

Canada.

The grand lodge which has jurisdiction in the upper or western province of the British Dominion of Canada, at present known as Ontario, is styled the Grand Lodge of Canada, and which name, since the organization and general recognition of a grand lodge in the lower or eastern province known as Quebec, is regarded a misnomer. In 1855 the first earnest movement took place toward the organization of a grand lodge for those interior provinces, formerly known as Upper and Lower, and then as Western and Eastern Canada, and in October of that year such a grand lodge was erected, with Wm. M. Wilson as the first grand master. But this grand lodge, though claiming such, did not exercise jurisdiction to any extent in the now province of Quebec until the year 1857, when the differences between this grand lodge and the lodges yet adhering to the British provincial grand masters being in great measure reconciled, one grand lodge was erected under the name and style of the Grand Lodge of Canada, and of which Sir Allan N. McNab, the senior Provincial, was elected the first grand master. Not being for some time afterwards recognized or acknowledged by the Grand Lodge of England, several lodges were, notwithstanding the rightful claim of the new grand lodge, allowed to remain in obedience to the British grand lodge from which they held their charters, and, in 1859, by arrangement of the respective grand masters of the G. Lodges of England and Canada, such lodges were not required to transfer their allegiance to the latter. This was the condition when the grand lodge was organized in 1869 at Quebec, and a majority of those lodges entered into that organization.

The Grand Lodge of Canada holds its annual communication in July, at that place which may at the previous ann. com. be elected. In 1870 there were carried on its register 229 lodges, with 9,931 members, of which numbers 21 lodges with 990 members (as per their reports for 1869,) did not report in 1870 to the G. L. of C., having transferred their allegiance to the G. L. of Quebec. The additions to the register of 1870--the 21 lodges above mentioned being dropped from it by us to appear in the Quebec register--have been courteously made by the grand secretary, in response to our request, and is, therefore, correct to July, 1871. This grand lodge is arranged upon the model of the G. L. of England, and with a Board of General Purposes, allows similar latitude of lodge representation. It pays neither mileage nor per diem. After the same model, its treasury is divided into various "funds," which, in 1870, amounted in the aggregate to over $40,000.

The principal grand officers elected in 1871 were--

JAMES SEYMOUR, of St. Catharine's, Grand Master.

THOS. WHITE, of Montreal, Deputy Gr. Master,

HENRY GROFF, of Simcoe. Grand Treasurer.

THOS. B. HARRIS, of Hamilton. Grand Secretary.

New Brunswick.

The Grand Lodge in this Province was organized at St. John in September, 1867. by a majority of the lodges in the province, and B. Lester Peters was elected the first grand master. Its annual communication takes place in September at the City of St. John, and there were at that meeting in 1870 the representatives of a majority of 26 lodges. with 1593 contributing members. The manner of the G. L. of England is followed as nearly as is possible in the management of this grand lodge. An elective officer in the other American grand lodges, in this the grand secretary is subject to appointment of the grand master elect, although paid by the grand lodge. The grand master also appoints a Board of General Purposes, consisting of ten members of the grand lodge, selected from among the senior and past grand officers, such Board being completed by the accession of the six principal grand officers, as ex-officio members. At its first meeting this Board is organized by the election of a chairman, and thereupon it becomes the executive of and reports its operations to this grand lodge, at the next subsequent annual meeting. The report of the grand treasurer exhibited a balance in bank of $1,039.35.

The principal grand officers elected in 1870 were—

WILLIAM WEDDERBURN, of Hampton, Grand Master.

JOHN V. ELLIS, of Carleton, Deputy Gr. Master,

BLISS BOTSFORD, of Monckton, Sen. Grand Warden.

WM. F. DIBBLEE, of Woodstock, Jun. Grand Warden.

WM. H. A. KEANS, of St. John, Grand Treasurer.

WM. F. BUNTING, of St. John, Grand Secretary (app'ted).

Nova Scotia.

A grand lodge was organized for this Province in June 1866, and the same was generally recognized by the United States grand lodges. but it could not properly be termed the G. Lodge of Nova Scotia, for the reason that none of the lodges in the Province holding charters from the G. L. of Scotland acknowledged it. Not until June 24, 1869, was the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia organized by the complete union of all the lodges then in the Province, fifty-one in number, and holding originally their charters from the several British grand lodges of the past century. The Hon. Alex. Keith, who had for many years, under Scottish appointment, filled the office of Provincial grand master, was elected the first grand master of the united grand lodge, and which in October, 1870, had on its register 57 lodges with 1811 subscribing members—several of the lodges making no return of membership. By the adoption, at the annual meeting for that year, of a new constitution this grand lodge will hold two regular communications each year: the annual in June and the semi-annual in December, both at Halifax. The assets of this grand lodge were, in October 1870, reported at nearly $4000 in cash and invested, and it was resolved to pay the reasonable expenses of one representative from each lodge, situate more than twenty miles from Halifax, to attend those communications. Except in the matter of lodge representation, otherwise, this grand lodge in the manner of its organization resembles that of those bodies in the United States.

The executive grand officers elected in 1870 were—

Hon. ALEX. KEITH, of Halifax, Grand Master.

WM. TAYLOR, of Halifax, Deputy Grand Master

ANDREW MACKINLAY, of Halifax, Grand Treasurer

BENJAMIN CURREN, of Halifax, Grand Secretary.

 NOTE.—In the General History, &c., published by Robert Macoy at New York in 1869 and since, it is stated that “the first lodge in Quebec was organized by authority of a warrant from “St. John’s Grand Lodge, of Boston, Mass.” This statement is entirely incorrect, and unsupported by any evidence. Albion Lodge, No. 0, on the page following this, ranks as No. 17 on the register of the United Grand Lodge of England. It was organized in 1722—eleven years before a Masonic lodge existed in Boston, or elsewhere in those colonies which subsequently became the United States. This is, outside of the city of London, the eldest lodge of those which have been chartered by the first grand lodge of Free and Accepted Masons ever organized.

Quebec.

The Grand Lodge in this Province was organized on the 20th of October, 1869, by the representatives of a majority of the lodges at that time in the Province convened for that purpose at Montreal, and John H. Graham was elected the first grand master. Its first annual communication was held in that city on the 19th and 20th days of October, 1870, at which time there were on its register 31 lodges, with 1279 contributing members. In its Proceedings of that date we find no reference to its finances. Being, so to say, but lately organized and, as yet, denied recognition by the Grand Lodge of Canada, with which, when so recognized, it should share to extent of a pro rata division the funds of the latter, the subject of finances has not, as it appears, been yet arranged or regarded with the degree of interest usual in such bodies. Like that of New Brunswick, this grand lodge is organized with the appointment of a Board of General Purposes, which, with the principal elective grand officers, constitute the executive between each ann. com., and at which such Board reports. Lodge representation in this grand lodge is unlimited as in those of the other provinces, being in all alike modeled on that of England.

The principal grand officers elected in 1870 were—

JOHN HAMILTON GRAHAM, of Richmond, Grand Master.

H. J. PRATTEN, of Quebec, Dep. Gr. Master.

H. M. ALEXANDER, of Montreal, Grand Treasurer.

JOHN H. ISAACSON, of Montreal, Grand Secretary.

From the well-printed Proceedings of this grand lodge for 1870 we present the following list of the lodges in this Province then acknowledging allegiance to the G. L. of Quebec.

IN the Island of Cuba, under the old regime of Spain, Masonic lodges are prohibited ; nevertheless such do exist, but nothing of a reliable character concerning them is known to us, or can be recorded with propriety.

WE here close our presentation of as full and correct a register of the lodges and grand lodges of Freemasons in North America which recognize each other, or correspond to any extent, as it is possible, we believe, at this time to produce. To these might be added about three hundred lodges of colored men. more or less, but which are not to any extent, from political and social causes, recognized by United States lodges or grand lodges the names of which we have given ; nor are we enabled to record that, taking their orders from their Mother grand lodges of Great Britain, do the lodges or grand lodges in any part of North America recognize them. However much, in view of the truly catholic and universal character that is claimed for Freemasonry, this fact may be deprecated by those of the Fraternity who in paternitatem Dei crederem, et fraternitatem magnam Hominis, nevertheless those very men, while they may not cease to work and hope for the early realization of this their belief, must be content also to believe that majorities will rule while voluntas populi lex suprema est.

Advertisements.

IN books of this character a few select advertisements, especially those of brethren dealers in the necessary outfit and equipments for any of the various Masonic bodies, may not be regarded out of place. but, as reference, be useful to the brethren in whose hands this little book may rest. Each of the advertisements here presented may be relied upon as representing an entirely responsible party or firm. Were we so disposed we could extend this department largely, but we prefer to confine it mainly to the advertisements of Manufacturers and Dealers in Masonic and other Society Furnishing Goods, and have, therefore, refused to insert in it several advertisements offered of a miscellaneous character, and which might be regarded as objectionable and improper to appear in a book of this kind.
